

Application for Summer 2009 Session in Britain

Application Procedure

All students, including those currently enrolled in the Hollins graduate program in children's literature, must complete an application form in order to be accepted for the summer session in the UK. Two references, attesting to the applicant's maturity, and potential for success, are required.

In addition to completing the application, please include a one-page typewritten statement explaining why you want to participate in this program and why your participation would be an asset to the group experience.

Deadline: March 1, 2008

Notification:

You will be informed of a decision by March 15.

Mail your completed application to:
