Camp Directors

Jim Phillips joined the Hollins coaching staff in 2008-09 as an assistant and began his first season as head coach in 2010-11. That year, Phillips' squad set the best record for Hollins since the 2002-03 season.

Phillips is a graduate of Fairmont State College with a B.A. in education. He has been an educator and coach for the last 20 years in the public school system. For the last 15 years, Phillips has been a member of the Botetourt County community, where he has organized and coached several teams to success through high school, middle school, and AAU basketball.

Assistant basketball coach Sarah Otey joined the Hollins athletic department in August 2010. Otey is a graduate of Washington and Lee University, where she was a four-year letter winner for the General's women's basketball team. Since graduating in 2007, Otey has coached both high school and AAU basketball teams.

Camp Information

Hollins' Team Camp is an opportunity for AAU and high school girls' basketball teams to enjoy three days of intense competition. Our purpose is to provide teams the chance to improve team skills and performance in game situations. All teams in attendance will be guaranteed six games, and every effort will be made to schedule competitive games. Coaches must coordinate admission to the Hollins Team Camp; campers should not apply as individuals. Teams who plan to commute to and from Hollins are responsible for arranging their own meals.
