Two regular terms of physical education course work are required for graduation. One course taken must contain the wellness component.

One course that includes the wellness component (designated “h” on course schedules) must be completed by the third semester. Not more than one activity course or varsity team sport in a single term may be taken in fulfillment of this requirement. Not more than one activity at the 100-level or 300-level may be counted toward satisfying the requirement. A 200-level course may not be repeated for credit. To satisfy a term of the physical education requirement, all work must be completed within the term. These courses carry no academic credit and are graded on a pass/fail basis. All courses are offered to first-year students as well as the Hollins community. Students are encouraged to complete both requirements by the end of the sophomore year.

With respect to the needs of individual students, maximum practical flexibility is applied. However, it is rare that a student is excused from completing the physical education requirement. Independent study is only approved in cases of medical necessity or unavoidable circumstances. The aim of the Physical Education department is to foster understanding of lifelong well-being and to help students develop physical skills which can be useful throughout life. Special fees are charged for some courses.

THE HOLLINS OUTDOOR LEADERSHIP CERTIFICATE (HOLC)
The Hollins Outdoor Leadership Certificate is designed for women at Hollins who are interested in outdoor leadership. The goal of the program is to provide training for women leaders in adventure recreation. The certification process includes components of the Wilderness Education Association’s National Standards Program, Leave No Trace trainer certification, Wilderness First Aid, leadership hours completed with the Hollins Outdoor Program (HOP) and course work.

This is a two-year process wherein each woman will have the capability to learn and develop her decision making, technical skills, and personal outlook through hands-on experience. Each woman who completes the HOLC program will graduate with at least two nationally recognized certifications and necessary experience if she wishes to pursue an education or career in outdoor leadership.

WILDERNESS EDUCATION ASSOCIATION NATIONAL STANDARDS COURSE
This is a 30-day outdoor leadership course concentrated in the southeastern United States. The course typically consists of four distinct activity components. Students will first experience a five-day technical caving school utilizing the expansive cave systems of Southwest Virginia. A whitewater canoeing clinic/trip will be held on the Chattooga River, a wild and scenic river of South Carolina/Georgia. Students will transition to the final portion of the course held at the Pisgah National Forest of North Carolina. Students will participate in a seven-day rock-climbing clinic in the Cedar Rock area and finish the course with a backpacking expedition. The teaching curriculum is based on the Wilderness Education Association’s 18-point curriculum.
COURSES IN PHYSICAL EDUCATION:

All 100-level and 200-level Physical Education courses are physical well-being courses, with the exception of Riding courses (PHED 240, 241, 242, 243, 251, 525, 253), PHED 212, 237, 257 and 263.

PHED 110: ROCK CLIMBING Owens
An introduction to rock climbing emphasizing responsible climbing techniques, belaying, and safety systems. Also included will be the metaphorical and psychological aspects of climbing. Practical experience will be at the Hollins climbing wall and other local climbing gyms. Fee: $15 for gear. Offered both terms.

PHED 113: WILDERNESS ADVENTURE SPORTS Owens
This course introduces basic techniques necessary in the outdoor activities of hiking, bouldering, caving, and rock climbing. Field trips are expected on weekends. Open to first-year students. Fee: approximately $20 for gear and land use. Not offered in 2017-18.

PHED 114: ORIENTEERING Department
Orienteering is the sport of navigation with a map and compass. Participation may at first glance seem simple: navigate through a series of points using a compass and a map, with the fastest time the “winner.” In this course students learn about reading maps and compasses. There can be an opportunity to make maps as well. The courses will start simply and build as the class develops their personal skills. Students may take opportunity to visit sites off campus to hone their skills. Not offered in 2017-18.

PHED 115: BASIC FISHING Owens
Students will have the opportunity to learn and have hands-on experience with reels, rods, and more—knots—casting—what fish like to eat—lure, bait, and fly-fishing—basic safety—catch and release vs. cut, clean, and eat! The class will include field trips to streams and rivers. There is a course fee and a Virginia fishing license is required. Offered Term 2.

PHED 119: CONDITIONING FOR OUTDOOR FITNESS Owens
Training and conditioning can help improve performance in outdoor-based adventure activities. This course begins with an individual assessment of students’ conditioning. Then, using a variety of techniques, including weight training, core strengthening, aquatics, and cardiovascular training, students will develop personal workout plans that enhance their enjoyment and performance in outdoor activities. Offered Term 1.

PHED 120: HEALTH AND WELLNESS O'Leary
An introductory course of wellness, general fitness, and lifestyle management. Topics included are wellness, physical fitness, cardiorespiratory endurance, muscular strength and endurance, flexibility, body composition, nutrition, weight management, stress, and cardiovascular health. The concepts will help with healthy life-long decisions. Activities include weight training, jogging, walking, and other physical activities. There will be discussion days and activity days. Not offered in 2017-18.

PHED 121: LIFETIME SPORTS Lawson
This course is designed to introduce students to sports that they can participate in for a lifetime. Students will gain an understanding that being physically active in their life will enhance overall wellness and improve their quality of life. The sports will include badminton, tennis, and ultimate frisbee. This course introduces lifetime sports so students may continue their education by taking the next level class or start to play on their own. Offered both terms.

PHED 127: GOLF FOR BUSINESS Frasier
This class examines business and leadership as it is applied to conducting business through the game of golf. Students will practice driving, the approach, and all components of the short game. Students will learn not only the nuances of the game’s fundamentals but also the nuances of entertaining clients and doing business, as well as developing a business plan to host your own golf tournament. The course will follow the PGA of America’s curriculum. Offered Term 1.

PHED 202: BEGINNING SWIMMING Richardson
This course is for those individuals who have a “healthy respect” (fear) of the water or would just like to learn to swim. Basic water orientation, safety skills, and introduction to propulsion on the front and back. Offered Term 1.
PHED 203: WATER AEROBICS
The purpose of this course is to introduce participants to the techniques and principles involved in an aquatic aerobic workout—movement and exercises in the water to tone, shape, and build the cardiovascular system—with a goal of working toward a lifetime personal program. Not offered in 2017-18.

PHED 204: DEVELOPMENTAL SWIMMING
The purpose of this course is to establish an awareness of swimming as a possible lifetime personal program based on individual needs and desires. Participants should be comfortable in the water and be able to move in some manner in the prone position and on the back. Diving and safety skills will be covered. The class will work toward a cardiovascular workout that is individually designed. Offered both terms.

PHED 205: AEROBIC FITNESS
This course introduces participants to the mechanics of aerobic fitness activities, including the benefits to the musculoskeletal system and cardiovascular capabilities. Class activities may include traditional aerobics, step aerobics, power walking, kickboxing, circuit and interval training, and core strength development. Safety guidelines, exertion rate, and training expectations will be incorporated into the course structure to ensure a safe and beneficial exercise experience. Not offered in 2017-18.

PHED 206: DEEP WATER AEROBICS
Aerobic conditioning in deep water. Warm-up and cool-down portions will be conducted in shallow water. The remaining exercises are in deep water or suspended body positions. Flotation exercise belts are worn; however, individuals need to be very comfortable in deep water. Flexibility, stretching, and core strength will also receive attention. Not offered in 2017-18.

PHED 207: BEGINNING GOLF
The student will learn the quarter swing, half swing, full swing, and techniques of chipping and putting. Introduction to the rules of courtesy on the course and the basic rules of golf. Offered Term 2.

PHED 208: BEGINNING TENNIS
The student will be taught the basic strokes of tennis: forehand, backhand, serve, overheads, volleys, and lob. Rules of play along with match play will be introduced. Offered both terms.

PHED 209: FUNDAMENTALS OF LACROSSE
Introductory course working on the basic skills, rules, and history of lacrosse. Topics covered include cradling, passing, catching, ground balls, and cutting. Students will also experience positions and the role of each position on the field. The history of the game and how the women’s game has changed throughout the years will also be examined. Not offered in 2017-18.

PHED 212: INTERMEDIATE ROCK CLIMBING
This course does not fulfill the wellness requirement.
This class is designed to teach the skills necessary to set up and facilitate outdoor rock-climbing trips. Participants learn top rope-anchoring systems and advanced knots and hitches and their uses. The course also covers safety standards and site management for working with groups, as well as workouts to improve individual technique, strength, and endurance. Course fee: $40. Offered Term 2.

PHED 214: BADMINTON
Introductory course teaching students the basic skills and strategies involved in playing the game of badminton. Rules of play along with match play will be introduced. Offered both terms.

PHED 216: DIET AND CONDITIONING
Introductory course teaching students about various conditioning/fitness methods and nutrition that will enable them to make healthy, educated lifetime decisions. Students are involved in many activities, including walking, jogging, roller blading, weight training, and many other activities and games. Not offered in 2017-18.

PHED 217: GOLF II
Learn the swing for golf, techniques of chipping, pitching, sand trap explosion, and putting. Introduction to strategies, rules of the game, and courtesy on the course. Open to students with prior experience or satisfactory completion of PHED 207. Not offered in 2017-18.
PHED 218: TENNIS II
Learn the strokes of tennis (forehand drive, backhand drive, serve, net volley, and lob) and strategies of singles and doubles play. Open to students with prior experience or satisfactory completion of PHED 208. Not offered in 2017-18.

PHED 223: WEIGHT TRAINING
Introductory course teaching students how to train with Nautilus and free-weight equipment in a safe, effective, and enjoyable way so that they will want to continue to train for the rest of their lives. Students are able to develop their own personal training program based on their individual needs or desires. Offered both terms.

PHED 227: ADVANCED CONDITIONING
An advanced conditioning class that emphasizes four main areas: strength training mainly through free weights, core/abdominal strengthening, footwork, agility and quickness conditioning, and flexibility. This class allows the student to focus on multiple areas of conditioning and learn lifelong fitness values. Offered both terms.

PHED 228: STRENGTH AND TONE
This course utilizes the fundamentals of core, weight, and resistance training to promote muscle and strength development. Building on traditional strength-training methodology, this course introduces participants to the benefits of cross training, antagonistic work, and balance. Instruction will be given on proper form and implementation, appropriate repetitions, and safety guidelines. Offered Term 1.

PHED 231: KICKBOXING
This course provides a learning environment where class participants can gain an understanding of their personal fitness level. Class participants utilize the mechanics of fitness activities borrowing from aerobics, martial arts, and boxing. Students examine the benefits to the musculoskeletal system and cardiovascular responses. The course provides class participants with a structured class environment that allows them to engage in a positive fitness experience. Not offered in 2017-18.

PHED 232: CHALLENGE EDUCATION ACTIVITIES
An introduction to personal challenge/discovery activities, including group initiatives, cooperative games, trust exercises, and a high ropes course. Activities will involve physical and psychological risk and challenge. Students will develop the competencies to facilitate adventure activities for groups through active participation, leadership, and understanding group dynamics. Fee: approximately $15 fee for equipment use. Not offered in 2017-18.

PHED 233: PILATES
This course introduces class participants to the mechanics of strength, flexibility, and conditioning. Class activities incorporate dance, traditional Pilates movements, and fitness techniques.
