FOR MORE INFORMATION
Contact Jon Guy Owens, HOP director, at (540) 362-6456 or jowens@hollins.edu.

A special note related to Covid-19: At this time, it is our hope to offer the 2021 Wilderness Orientation Program. If, due to the state of the pandemic, we are unable to offer it, registrants will receive a full refund, including deposit. For related questions, contact Jon Guy at jowens@hollins.edu.
Before you begin your official Hollins adventure, have an outdoor adventure with HOP, the Hollins Outdoor Program.

Led by Jon Guy Owens, HOP director, and experienced Hollins students, the five-day wilderness orientation program will take you scaling the high ropes course at Camp Roanoke and canoeing down the James River. You’ll even get to run the rapids of Balcony Falls. You’ll also receive instruction on basic outdoor living skills.

Best of all, you’ll meet other students who just might turn out to be some of your best Hollins friends.

WHO: Any student interested in outdoor adventure, whether she’s a beginning or seasoned outdoorswoman

WHEN: August 23-27, 2021

COST: $300, which includes travel, food, and instruction

INTERESTED? Registration deadline is July 16, 2021, but space is limited to the first 10 students, so act fast! Visit hollins.edu/wilderness-orientation-registration to register and pay online.

TRIP DIRECTOR

Jon Guy Owens has directed HOP since 2001. He was born and raised in the Great Smoky Mountains near Cherokee, North Carolina, and got his start in adventure recreation as a river guide on the Nantahala River in North Carolina, while earning his undergraduate degree in therapeutic recreation.

He is certified as: instructor/trainer from Wilderness Education Association, wilderness first responder, and single pitch instructor from the American Mountain Guiding Association. He lives near campus with his wife, Anna Copplestone ’06, and son, Henry.
