SOCIAL JUSTICE MINOR

PROFESSORS: Edward A. Lynch (political science; chair, global politics and societies), Darla Schumm (religious studies)

ASSISTANT PROFESSORS: Ashleigh Breske (international studies and political science), Courtney Chenette (political science), Jennifer Turner (sociology)

VISITING ASSISTANT PROFESSOR: Heike Peckruhn (religious studies)

The Global Politics and Societies (GPS) department includes four separate major programs of study in sociology, religious studies, political science, and international studies and one minor program of study in social justice. Each of the programs uses an interdisciplinary approach with some shared courses and collaborative teaching based on the common research and teaching interests of faculty members. The social justice minor challenges students to think about power, inequality, diversity, and justice in local, national, and global contexts. For information about major programs of study, see requirements listed under the subject area of the major.

COURSES IN GLOBAL POLITICS AND SOCIETIES:

GPS 216: RESEARCH METHODS IN SOCIAL SCIENCES (4)

Breske

Study of the nature, requirements, and procedures in the social sciences with emphasis on the applied skill in critical analysis of published scholarly works. Epistemological topics in concept formation, hypothesis generation, and theory construction. Offered Term 2. (w, x, r).

GPS 470: SENIOR SEMINAR (2)

Lynch

This course will focus on the transition from undergraduate work to the “real world.” Students will reflect on the culmination of their learning in their respective majors and assess their work skills and interests. Not offered in 2022-23.

GPS 475: SOCIAL JUSTICE CAPSTONE (4)

Chenette

All social justice minors are required to take this course during the spring term of their senior year. The GPS social justice minor challenges students to think about power, inequality, diversity, and justice in global, national, local, and personal contexts. Students will draw from these social justice course foundations—texts, theory, methods, skills, and practice—to more deeply explore student-directed research, writing, and engagement in social justice work. Emphasis will be placed on the senior experience of translating student immersion in academic content, substance, and structure, to professional development, life planning, and action. Offered Term 2.

GPS 480: SENIOR THESIS (4)

Breske

Students will write an integrative thesis, to be co-directed by faculty from the GPS department. The thesis will be written during the fall semester of the senior year. Offered Term 1.
