

Scan the QR code below
to access all links
in this newsletter

MAY 2024

Global Learning Hub (GLO)

Campus & Roanoke Events

Final La Table Francophone
Thu., May 2, 12:30 pm
Upper Moody, Camp Younts

Global Politics and Societies
Symposium
Thu., May 2, 4-6:30 pm
Moody, Goodwin PDR

Asian Pacific Islander (API)
Book Tasting & Poetry Gallery
Fri., May 3, 2-4 pm
Library, Hollins Room

JSA Shabbat Dinner
Fri., May 3, 5-7 pm
Apartment Village, Fire Pit

Final Spanish Conversation
Group Meeting
Mon., May 6, 3 pm
Turner Lounge

Final Spanish Language Table
Tues., May 7
Lunch 1-2 pm; Dinner 4-5 pm
Moody, Janney Lounge

2024 Local Colors Festival
Click here to find out more!
Sat., May 18, 11 am-5 pm
Elmwood Park

See K-Pop group LEAD from South Korea!
Come meet them at either
Local Colors (see above) or at Taubman Museum of Art
Sat., May 18, 1:30 - 2:30 pm

Celebrating Global Road Warriors Graduating in 2024!

Congratulations to our GLO student assistant and current/former Global Ambassadors!

Victoria Anderson

Major: business

After graduation, Anderson will head back to her hometown of Virginia Beach to pursue a career in project management.

Charvi Gangwani

Major: biology

Gangwani hopes to focus on research in precision medicine and biotechnology. She also plans to continue growing and expanding her nonprofit organization, The Amygdala.

Zeina Ghanem

Major: psychology

Ghanem plans to attend Montclair State University for an M.A. in clinical psychology with a concentration in child/adolescence.

Marie Gruver

Major(s): classical studies & history

Gruver will be attending William & Mary for a post-bacc.
program in classical studies before she continues to a Ph.D.
program. She is also applying to archaeological field schools in Greece for the following summer.

Susanna Helms

Major: international studies

Helms plans on going to graduate school in the United Kingdom to study heritage management.

A Semester in Ireland...

Click here to watch Hollins student Ainsley Hanson '24 talk about daily life while studying abroad at Limerick University.

Need some poetry in your life?

Enjoy these new trans-international works!

- Lost Horoscopes & Other Poems by Himalayan poet Yuyutsu Sharma
- Hunger and Predation by Indian-Australian poet Pooja Mittal
- Mist Snivo: Vybrani Virshi by Ukrainian poet Oleh Lysheha
- Mattress Makers: Poetry by Indo-Caribbean poet Sasenarine Persaud
- Old Love Skin: Voices from Contemporary Africa by 51 African poets

Don't forget to return your library books!!

Scan the QR code above to learn more about GLO opportunities at Hollins

Student Focus

Highlighted below are some of our extraordinary students exploring their global horizons!

Natté Fortier '24

Major: political science
Fortier has received a Fulbright English Teaching Assistantship to go to Spain in 2024-25!
For more information on this reward click here.

Matilda Sieger '25

Major: english
Sieger is Hollins' first student to do an international internship in Ireland. She is completing it while studying at partner institution, the University of Limerick. Read more about the program here!

Other Roanoke Valley Global Events!

Cinco de Mayo Taco 'Ritas Festival

Sun., May 5, at 12-5 pm
See website for ticket prices.
Berglund Center

Art House Cinema Series - Hero

Mon., May 6, at 6 pm
This film is in Chinese with English subtitles.
Grandin Theatre

Art House Cinema Series - Tokyo Story

Mon., May 20, at 6 pm
This film is in Japanese with English subtitles.
Grandin Theatre

